SHORT DESCRIPTION

A curated collection of articles and resources focusing on integrating sustainability into business education.

NETWORK FOR BUSINESS SUSTAINABILITY

SUGGESTIONS

Use the resources and articles to guide how you teach sustainability mindsets and systems thinking. Incorporate case examples to inspire active learning formats such as flipped classrooms or student-led events. Assign short readings to role groups (e.g., finance or policy) to support their pitch development. The site also helps facilitators connect real-world business challenges to student innovation, making it a great resource for framing activities with academic depth and practical relevance.
